FOR A BROADER ANTI-PASS LAW

Spooner of Morris Introduces New Bill in the House.

MUST PAY RAILROAD FARE

Proposed Measure Would Compel State Railroad Commissioners and Their Employees to Pay Their Fare. Bill Introduced to Prevent Unfair Competition in Buying and Handling Grain—Senate Measure Would Protect Wage Earners From Loan Sharks.

St. Paul, Jan. 14.—There is no reason why the state railroad commissioners should have passes any more than other state officers or common people, thinks L. C. Spooner of Morris, and so he introduced a bill in the house which strikes out the paragraph in the 1907 anti-pass law, which compels railroad companies to carry the members of the commission and their employees free.

The legislature two years ago decided that they should ride free because they have to do a great deal of traveling inspecting the roads, and they figured that if the matter was compulsory on the roads it would not put the commission under obligations. But Spooner claims that the members used this privilege for political purposes.

A third judge in the Fifteenth judicial district is provided in a bill introduced by T. M. Ferguson of Baker.

A bill prohibiting unfair competition in buy and handling grain was introduced by C. M. Bindixen of Morgan. His bill makes it unlawful for any concern to pay a higher price in one town than they do elsewhere. The penalty is $5,000, or a year's imprisonment, together with the danger of being prohibited from doing business in the state. The bill is intended to prevent large companies from driving small buyers out of business by paying high prices temporarily in one locality.

To Wipe Out Primary Election System

The present primary election system is wiped off the statute books by a bill introduced by Ole Peterson of Nicollet county. His bill has only one line, repealing the chapter of the code relating to primary elections and does not provide any caucus or convention system to take its place.

The perennial anti-cigarette bill made its appearance in the house. E. M. Nagel of Buffalo being the author this time. It prohibits absolutely the manufacture, sale, keeping for sale, giving away or in any way disposing of either cigarettes or papers and tobacco which may be used for cigarettes. Jobbers doing an interstate business are exempted from the law.

A bounty of 5 cents for killing old crows is provided in a bill by D. J. Murphy of Waseca. For young crows the bounty is 3 cents.

The killing of prairie chickens during 1909 and 1910 is prohibited in a bill by J. A. Gates of Kenyon.

A resolution asking for a committee of five to inquire into the progress of the steel trust is making with its steel plant at Duluth was introduced in the house by G. W. Rodenberg of St. Paul. It cites a letter from E. B. Hawkins sent to the speaker of the house two years ago and printed in the house journal in which assurances were given that the plant would be speedily constructed. The resolution says that the house has not official information as to the progress of the plant. J. G. Lennon of Minneapolis gave notice of debate, and the resolution had to be laid over.

Would Help Salaried Men.

Two bills presented in the senate are designed to help men keep money they have honestly earned and prevent sharpers getting it from them. Loan sharks get a black eye in a bill by J. W. Pauly of Minneapolis making invalid assignments of wages under certain conditions. S. W. Works of Mankato hits at the investment companies of other states which sell stock at a low figure with big profits in sight.

The bill by Senator Pauly will help keep salaried men from the clutches of loan agencies. These men advertise that loans are easy, and can be made with secrecy. The man in debt assigns his wages for several months and if he doesn't make payment on time he is charged an additional percent until it becomes almost impossible to pay the debt. The contemplated law requires notice to the employer before such assignments are valid. In the case of a married man the wife must join in the assignment and the paper must be filed with the city clerk.

Investment companies which promise 6 or 12 per cent a month will be required to deposit a real estate bond amounting to $200,000 before they can do business in Minnesota, according to the bill of Senator Works. They will also be under the supervision of the bank examiner.

Minnesota gets into line with older states in establishing a state board of accountancy as contemplated in a bill proposed by Senator V. B. Seward of Marshall. This board will have power to designate those who pass the examination as "Certified Public Accountants."

JUROR IS BADLY INJURED

Pluckily Takes His Place in the Box in the Hains Trial.

Flushing, N. Y., Jan. 14.—Events crowded fast in the trial of Thornton Jenkins Hains. When court adjourned at night Juror Thomas Walsh, injured in a street car accident in New York Tuesday night, was placed in the care of a physician by Justice Crane, that his injuries might not cause a mistrial of the case. Counsel for the defense concluded their summing up and Prosecutor Darrin began his address to the jury. Mr. Darrin will conclude his speech some time today and Justice Crane, after his charge, will give the case over to the jury.

Only the pluck of Juror Walsh saved the Hains case from mistrial and postponement. Battered almost beyond recognition from a fall from a street car, Walsh came from the hospital to the court and sat through the day's trial, though at times he appeared to suffer greatly, and Justice Crane took frequent recesses that the injured juror might recover his strength. The juror informed Justice Crane that he felt that he could continue, but only when a physician gave his assent would the justice permit the case to go on. Juror Walsh is being cared for by a physician in Flushing.

Prosecutor Darrin, following the closing address of Mr. McIntyre for the defense, bitterly scored many of the defense's witnesses called to testify to the insanity of Captain Hains. For over two hours the state's attorney dwelt upon the question of the rationality of the army officer. His address to the jury was clothed in no dramatic terms or forensic utterances, and he confined himself to marshaling the facts from the evidence.

MANY BODIES RECOVERED

Forty-seven Taken From the Lick Branch Mine.

Bluefield, W. Va., Jan. 14.—A total of forty-seven bodies have been taken from the ill-fated mine at Lick Branch.

Three rescue crews of forty men each led by State Mine Inspectors Grady, Nicholson and Warner are at work. The men in these crews report the most ghastly sights within the torn and fire-swept corridors and workings of the mine, where bodies are found mangled and mutilated beyond identification. It is difficult, they declare, to distinguish between white and black, because they are so frightfully burned. Some bodies taken from the mines resemble charred masses of flesh more than human beings. From some bodies the legs are gone, from others the arms. One was completely headless.

Experienced mine men are authority for the statement that this is the first case on record where two explosions took place in the same mine in such a short space of time and are unable to explain its cause. Some of them point to the fact that the thermometer fell 19 degrees within several hours on the morning of the catastrophe and hold that such rapid changes in the weather have considerable influence on the conditions that produce mine disasters.

ORDER COMES OUT OF CHAOS

Legislative Deadlock in Illinois Finally Broken.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 14.—Order came out of chaos in the legislative deadlock which had held out for nearly a week, when the senate joined with the house in formally canvassing the returns of the November election, the result of which declared Governor Deneen and other Republican state officers duly elected. Storm clouds still float above the state house, however, in the shape of a petition asking for a recount of the governorship ballots and a contest of the executive seat. The senatorial situation is by no means clear and many declare that the probability is that a fierce contest will be waged over the election of a successor to the place held by Senator Albert J. Hopkins than would have been witnessed but for the excitement which marked the bitter contest over the speakership and the deadlock over the canvassing of the state vote. The harmony action of the legislators makes possible the inaugural ceremonies which occur next Monday in the capitol building.

The expectation is that only perfunctory sessions of the house and senate will be held between now and Tuesday, when the senatorial contest is scheduled to begin.

Members of the Democratic state central committee having in charge the recount petition of Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate for governor at the November elections, after serving notice Tuesday through Representative Lee O'Neill Browne of Ottawa that the document was to be presented to the legislature, went further and filed one signed copy with Clerk McCann of the house of representatives and another with Secretary Paddock of the senate. Both copies were signed by Mr. Stevenson.

Inaccuracies in all but nine of the 102 counties in Illinois in counting the vote for governor at the November elections are charged. An approximate total of 50,000 votes more than are shown by the election returns is claimed by Mr. Stevenson in his petition.

INSANE MAN RUNS AMUCK

Injures Six Persons, Including His Wife.

Hamilton, O., Jan. 14.—Rudolph Wirtz, secretary of the Wirtz Transfer company, a prominent business man, went insane and ran amuck, injuring six persons, including his wife, who will probably die. Wirtz assailed his wife with a penknife at home. He cut and stabbed the woman forty-four times in the face, breast, neck and head. He cut out her left eye and severed her right thumb. Wirtz was beaten almost insensible before being disarmed. Wirtz slashed his brother Julius twelve times in the face and injured Charles Martin, president of the Martin Transfer company, Harry Summerton, William Hirschner and George Long, but they will recover.

Wirtz is held by the police. He has been in a sanitarium.

The three who arrived at Ballarat were demented, having wandered for nine days, most of the time without water.

Iams trustees account—a pool of over $188,000 made up for the campaign of 1905—were not introduced.

It was shown that there are 7,500 voters in the county and that in this campaign Rinehart's side alone spent an average of $25 for each vote.

An agreement was reached to give the case to the jury today and District Attorney Dunkle occupied the afternoon addressing the jury.

the bounty is 3 cents.

The killing of prairie chickens dur-

A resolution asking for a committee of five to inquire into the progress

St. Paul. It cites a letter from E. B.

RALPH MOREY IS ACQUITTED

Jury Was Out from 2:20 Wednesday afternoon until 9:30 Thursday Morning

ENTIRE PANEL WAS DISCHARGED

Deputy Sheriff Theorin is Empaneling a Third Jury to Try McKinley Cases

The jury, to which was given the question of whether or not Ralph Morey was guilty of manslaughter in the shooting of John Bushway, after wrestling with the subject about 19 hours came to an agreement shortly before 9 o'clock this morning. Court, however, did not convene until 9:30, at which time the verdict was brought in to court. There were but few present at the time the jury came in, there being but a few scattered attorneys and spectators and the lad's parents and baby sister in the room. The lad, who has not paid the slightest attention to the trial, but has played around the room unconcernedly, apparently did not realize that the verdict affected him in the least.

There is still an indictment for larceny hanging over the boy, but it is not known whether or not he will be tried. There is considerable criticism of the outcome of the trial, not so much that the verdict was contrary to the evidence as a feeling of fear as to what the boy will do if turned loose with no punishment for shooting his playmate in a fit of anger.

The jury was discharged from further service at the present term of court, the rest of the panel having been dismissed Wednesday.

Deputy Sheriff Theorin was busy Wednesday afternoon and evening summoning a third venire of jurors. This was rendered necessary by the fact that the members of the former venire had all served on juries considering some of the so-called McKinley cases. The new venire was ordered to report at 1:30 p. m.

WATCH THE SHOEMAKER

In having shoes repaired in this cold climate it is necessary to watch the cobbler. Unless instructed otherwise the shoemaker will almost invariably use steel nails instead of the old fashioned wooden pegs in putting the half soles on shoes. This method has the advantage of being more durable, but each nail will carry a line of frost to the foot in extreme cold weather and the result will be frozen spots about the size of a large shot on the sole of the foot where the pressure comes. Insist on having the soles either pegged or sewed on and you will escape suffering.

Piano and Song Recital

Miss Dorothy Humes, a charming young pianist and singer, gave the members and friends of the Ladies' Musical Club a very pleasant evening Wednesday.

Miss Humes was at a disadvantage in singing because of a recent attack of tonsillitis. Nevertheless her voice, mezzo of pleasing quality—was sweet; her articulation, clear; and her interpretations, sympathetic. The two Hawaiian songs, quaint and mellow, sung as an encore, were especially well received.

But it was in the piano numbers Miss Humes excelled. The first Grieg number, "The Peace of the Woods," was quiet, dreamy, suggesting "spaces of silence, swept with song," leaf flutterings, and the soft sing-song of the woodstream. The second, Miss Humes played with abandon and entire success. She became, for the time, the saucy English sprite—whimsical, airy, grotesque—who boasted he would "put a girdle about the earth in forty minutes." The freedom and delicate melancholy of the following piece—"If I Were a Bird," were evident.

Liszt's "Tarentelle" which is so delicate, rapid and complex as to tax the powers of a seasoned musician, Miss Humes certainly played well. The changing melody was plain, whether simple or elaborately decorated, the runs were rippling and smooth the subtle articulations were neatly made, thus binding the parts into a coherent whole.

In general one may say Miss Humes' technique is smooth and sure. Her clear phrasing, distinct yet blended tones, smooth runs and neat staccato effects are admirable. Her interpretations are invariably distinct and delicate. Miss Humes is to be congratulated upon possessing so early these many requisites of a successful pianist.

Party Returned Last Night From International Falls on an Inspection Trip

General Manager W. H. Gemmell, of the Minnesota & International railroad, left this morning for St. Paul after a trip over the line in company with Superintendent W. H. Strachan, the party coming down from International Falls last night on a special train. Mr. C. B. Kinney, local agent for the International Falls Townsite Co., accompanied them. When asked this morning as to the night train service which the towns along the railroad are urging, Mr. Gemmell said that it was too early to say anything definite but did say that there would be changes and improvements in the train service later on.

Mr. Gemmell stated that the cold weather was interfering with the work on the International Falls dam but that the last day or two, since the extreme cold moderated had witnessed increased activity. He expresses the belief that it will be a very busy season up there next summer.

In other railway circles there are rumors that the daily passenger from Staples to Fargo will be extended so as to run from Fargo to Brainerd and return. This however, is doubted considerably, by many of those in a position to know.

W. P. Locke Arrived in This City This Morning with the Remains of His Wife

NO FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS

Interment will Probably be in Evergreen Cemetery but may be at Old Home

W. P. Locke, of Jenkins, arrived this morning from Spokane, Wash., with the remains of Mrs. Locke, who died very suddenly in that city last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Locke, who have been traveling throughout the west for the past few weeks, arrived in Spokane at 2 o'clock Friday morning from Seattle and Vancouver, where they had been visiting her relatives. She was taken ill about noon and though she was removed to a hospital and all possible done for her she sank rapidly and died in about five hours. The cause of death, according to the report of the attending physician, was rupture of the intestines. No arrangements have been made as yet for the funeral and it is possible, though not probable that the remains will be taken to her old home in New Brunswick for burial. The deceased was 38 years of age, and had been married to Mr. Locke nearly 20 years. She leaves a husband, and one daughter, who reside in Jenkins and a mother and sister in Vancouver, B. C. For ten years the family were residents of Brainerd and have a host of friends here to whom her death was a great shock, she having always enjoyed almost perfect health.

The remains are at the undertaking parlors of Losey & Dean, but will be removed to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Skinner, East Brainerd, prior to the funeral, unless Mr. Locke should be requested by her mother to take the remains to New Brunswick for burial. He states that he will abide by the mother's wish in the matter. Their only daughter, Olive, a girl of about 12 years of age, came down today from Jenkins, accompanied by Mrs. F. W. Rayburn, of Walker and Mrs. Neil McKay, of Cross Lake.

Just before going to press it is learned that the funeral will be held at the People's Congregational church, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

RALPH MOREY IS ACQUITTED
Jury Was Out from 2:20 Wednesday afternoon until 9:30 Thursday Morning

ENTIRE PANEL WAS DISCHARGED
Deputy Sheriff Theorin is Empaneling a Third Jury to Try McKinley Cases

The jury, to which was given the question of whether or not Ralph Morey was guilty of manslaughter in the shooting of John Bushway, after wrestling with the subject about 19 hours came to an agreement shortly before 9 o'clock this morning. Court, however, did not convene until 9:30, at which time the verdict was brought in to court. There were but few present at the time the jury came in, there being but a few scattered attorneys and spectators and the lad's parents and baby sister in the room. The lad, who has not paid the slightest attention to the trial, but has played around the room unconcernedly, apparently did not realize that the verdict affected him in the least.

There is still an indictment for larceny hanging over the boy, but it is not known whether or not he will be tried. There is considerable criticism of the outcome of the trial, not so much that the verdict was contrary to the evidence as a feeling of fear as to what the boy will do if turned loose with no punishment for shooting his playmate in a fit of anger.

The jury was discharged from further service at the present term of court, the rest of the panel having been dismissed Wednesday.

Deputy Sheriff Theorin was busy Wednesday afternoon and evening summoning a third venire of jurymen. This was rendered necessary by the fact that the members of the former venire had all served on juries considering some of the so-called McKinley cases. The new venire was ordered to report at 1:30 p. m.

WATCH THE SHOEMAKER

In having shoes repaired in this cold climate it is necessary to watch the cobbler. Unless instructed otherwise the shoemaker will almost invariably use steel nails instead of the old fashioned wooden pegs in putting the half soles on shoes. This method has the advantage of being more durable, but each nail will carry a line of frost to the foot in extreme cold weather and the result will be frozen spots about the size of a large shot on the sole of the foot where the pressure comes. Insist on having the soles either pegged or sewed on and you will escape suffering.

EDMUND CLARENCE STEDMAN

Eloquent Tribute Paid to the Poet in New York.

New York, Jan. 14.—Eloquent tribute was paid to the memory of Edmund Stedman, the poet, at Carnegie Lyceum, where 200 persons prominent in New York's literary circles gathered.

The memorial was under the auspices of the Century club, the Authors' club, the New England society, the National Institute of Arts and Sciences, and the Stock Exchange.

Occupying seats on the stage with Richard Watson Gilder, who presided, were Hamilton Wright Mable, Seth Low, William Winter and Colonel William C. Church.

Robert Underwood Johnson, who represented the American committee of the Keats-Shelley memorial in Rome, with which Mr. Stedman had so much to do, announced that 100 members of the Stock Exchange had subscribed $2,000 to provide a room in the house in Rome to be dedicated to Mr. Stedman.

FATAL WRECK IN CANADA

Engineer, Brakeman and Porter Will Die of Their Injuries.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 14.—Word has reached this city of a bad freight wreck on a siding of the Canadian Pacific railway seven miles west of Swift Current, resulting in fatal injuries to three persons. A silk train was on a siding when it was run into by a freight train, the switch not having been closed. The silk train immediately caught fire and several cars were burned. The engineer, brakeman and porter, names unknown, were fatally injured. Silk valued at $220,000, which arrived at Vancouver this week by steamer from the Orient, for New York merchants, was destroyed.

One Killed and Three Injured.

Quincy, Mass., Jan. 14.—One man was killed and three were injured by the explosion of a copper tank which was being tested by compressed air at the works of the Electric Boat company, situated in the yards of the Fore River Shipbuilding company. Among the injured is Lieutenant Commander Gregory C. Davidson, U. S. N., retired, an acknowledged authority on naval explosives.

Panic Caused by Earthquake.

Rome, Jan. 14.—Longer accounts from Venetia, Lombardy and Tuscany describe the panic caused by the recent earthquake there which, according to certain reports, were repeated with slightly diminished strength. Everywhere people rushed out screaming "earthquake." Two women died of fright at Bologna.

AMERICAN GIRL GETS CORONET

Miss Mills of New York Becomes Countess of Granard.

WEDDING A QUIET AFFAIR

Held at the Home of the Bride's Parents, the Auxiliary Bishop of New York Officiating at the Ceremony. Bridegroom is a Roman Catholic and Bride is a Protestant—Four Little Girls Act as Bridesmaids.

New York, Jan. 14.—Another American girl of wealth entered the peerage of Great Britain this afternoon when Miss Beatrice Mills of this city became the Countess of Granard by marriage to the Earl of Granard, master of the horse to King Edward. The ceremony was performed at the city house of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills, parents of the bride, at Sixty-ninth street and Fifth avenue. Only relatives and intimate friends had been asked to the ceremony, which was private. The wedding was marked by none of the ostentation that has made great society functions of former international marriages.

Miss Mills is a Protestant, and the Earl of Granard is the head of one of the great old Roman Catholic families of Great Britain. Bishop Thomas Francis Cusack, auxiliary bishop of the archdiocese of New York, officiated at the ceremony, a dispensation having been obtained.

Following an old English custom, the bridesmaids were all little children. They were Miss Ellen Mackay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay; Miss Edith Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Taylor; Miss Alice Astor, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. John Jacob Astor, and Miss Grace Vanderbilt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt. The Hon. Donald Forbes, a younger brother of the Earl of Granard, was the best man.

Miss Beatrice Mills is one of the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills. Her sister Gladys was married a year ago to Henry Carnegie Phipps. Mrs. Ogden Mills herself was a twin, her sister being Mrs. Cavendish Bentinck of England.

D. O. Mills, the grandfather of the bride, is the well known banker and philanthropist and one of the wealthiest men in the United States.

Miss Beatrice Mills is tall, graceful and of a blond type and English in dress and manner. She has had much social success abroad and in this country.

KILLS WOMAN AND HIMSELF

Painter Shoots Wife Who Had Returned to Her Husband.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Because she had returned to her husband, from whom she had separated, Mrs. Lizzie Harbin, aged forty-one, and mother of seven children, was shot and killed at her home in this city by Frederick Kraemer, a painter, twenty-two years old, employed in the navy yard, who then turned the weapon upon himself and inflicted wounds which proved fatal.

The police say that the circumstances of the tragedy indicate that probably there was an agreement between the man and woman to die together.

Recently Mrs. Harbin became estranged from her husband, Daniel Harbin, as the result of Kraemer's attentions, it is said, but for the sake of the children, they agreed to live together again. A few hours after the reconciliation Kraemer went to the Harbin home. There was no witness to their meeting and what transpired there prior to the shooting is unknown. The couple were discovered in each other's arms after the tragedy. Several of the woman's children were in the house at the time of the shooting.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY

Frank Shercliff Placed on Trial in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Jan. 14.—The trial of Sherman Morris, alias Frank Shercliff, charged with robbery in the first degree, has been begun in the district court here. Morris, who served time in Iowa for a sensational diamond robbery and who escaped from a train in Colorado while being taken to prison to serve a twenty-five year sentence for murder, is considered one of the most dangerous criminals in the country. He is charged with holding up passengers on a Northern Pacific train in the Minneapolis city limits last spring. Owen Ball, now serving a prison sentence, made a confession in which he implicated Shercliff.

WISCONSIN FARMER KILLED

Fond du Lac, Wis., Jan. 14.—Jacob Krug, one of the best known farmers in the town of Forest, is dead and August Plank, a neighboring farmer, was probably fatally injured when their cutter went over the side of a bridge, throwing the men to the ice below.

LONG RIDE TAKEN BY ROOSEVELT

President Travels Ninety-eight Miles in Seventeen Hours.

LITTLE SIGNS OF WEARINESS

Chief Executive Makes Journey to Prove That Army Officers Should Be Capable of Riding Ninety Miles in Three Days—Last Thirty Miles of Journey Traversed Through Sleet and Rain Storm.

Washington, Jan. 14.—President Roosevelt rode ninety-eight miles on horseback and when he dismounted at the White House door, more than seventeen hours after having departed therefrom, he did not show any marked signs of weariness. The object of his long day in the saddle, he explained after his return, was to "prove to the critics who have found fault with the recent order ordering all army and navy officers to take a physical test, that if a president, who is not in training, can ride ninety miles plus in one day without being laid in bed thereby, it should not be too much to ask the men who are supposed to be in the best physical training all the time to ride ninety miles in three days."

Mounting his faithful rider and jumper "Roswell" in front of the White House door at 3:30 o'clock in the morning, he dismounted at the same place at 8:40 o'clock at night. The journey was to Warrenton, Va., and back. "And Virginia roads in the winter time," said the president, "are not usually in the best condition." With the president were Dr. Rixey, surgeon general of the navy; Dr. Carey Grayson and Captain Archibald Butt, one of the president's aides.

On the return trip the last thirty miles of the journey were made in sleet and rain, while the last fifteen miles were in almost pitch darkness.

Refused to Ride in Carriage.

Arriving at the Aqueduct bridge across the Potomac, the president refused to take the carriage which was waiting there for him. When he dismounted his coat and hat were frozen stiff with sleet and ice. There were four relays of horses, the first stage of the journey out and the last in being made by the president on "Roswell;" the second out and the third in being on "Georgia;" while the other two were on army horses which the president had never before mounted.

As the four horseback riders, followed by two policemen on wheels and the empty carriage, arrived at the executive mansion, the president, in front with his broad-brimmed black slouch hat drawn down over his face, presented a striking picture.

Both the outward and the return trip lay through Fairfax Courthouse to Warrenton. Arriving at the latter place, where the president's coming had been heralded an hour or so before his arrival, he was greeted by a gathering of citizens and school children, to whom he spoke a few words of greeting. They took luncheon at a hotel and then began the return journey after a short rest.

In less than an hour after returning to the White House the president had changed his ice-coated clothing for evening dress and appeared in the dining room ready for as hearty a meal as he has eaten for a long time.

If any of the critics of his "army riding order" had dropped in about that time they would have been sadly disappointed, for the president did not show in the least that he had been sitting for nearly seventeen hours in a hard saddle.

SHOOTS DOWN TWO PERSONS

Unknown Man Wounds Woman and Kills a Policeman.

Omaha, Jan. 14.—An unknown man entered the house of Anna Wilson at Ninth and Douglas streets at 1 o'clock this morning and held up the place. A girl whose name has not been learned resisted and was shot. The robber then started for the door, where he was met by Patrolman L. A. Smith, into whose body he fired a bullet, the officer dying on the spot. The woman is not fatally wounded.

A big squad of emergency officers followed the robber to the Missouri river, where they lost track of him for a time. An hour later, however, they came upon a man near the Douglas street Missouri river bridge and on his failure to surrender several shots were fired at him, one or more of which took effect. He was then captured and rushed to the emergency hospital. He has not yet been identified as the robber.

Fire Still Rages in Mine.

Herrin, Ill., Jan. 14.—Although officers of the Zeigler Coal company said Monday that the bodies of the twenty-six men killed in the Letter mine by an explosion Sunday had been recovered, it is said at the mine that seven bodies still remain in the workings. It is probable that they will never be recovered, for a fire is raging in the mine.

Lively Debate in House.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Practically the whole session of the house of representatives was devoted to a discussion of an amendment to the District of Columbia appropriation bill appropriating $15,000 for children's playgrounds. The subject occasioned a lively debate. The supporters of the proposition prevailed and the amendment accordingly was adopted. The bill was still pending when the house adjourned.

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with overwork. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain or distress in "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, "sour" or "rising" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more permanently than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

The memorial was under the auspices of the Century club, the Authors' club, the New England society, the National Institute of Arts and Sciences, and the Stock Exchange.

Occupying seats on the stage with Richard Watson Gilder, who presided, were Hamilton Wright Mable, Seth Low, William Winter and Colonel William C. Church.

FATAL WRECK IN CANADA

Engineer, Brakeman and Porter Will Die of Their Injuries.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 14.—Word has reached this city of a bad freight wreck on a siding of the Canadian Pacific railway seven miles west of Swift Current, resulting in fatal injuries to three persons. A silk train was on a siding when it was run into by a freight train, the switch not having been closed. The silk train immediately caught fire and several cars were burned. The engineer, brakeman and porter, names unknown, were fatally injured. Silk valued at $250,000, which arrived at Vancouver this week by steamer from the Orient, for New York merchants, was destroyed.

One Killed and Three Injured.

AMERICAN GIRL GETS CORONET

Miss Mills of New York Becomes Countess of Granard.

WEDDING A QUIET AFFAIR

Held at the Home of the Bride's Parents, the Auxiliary Bishop of New York Officiating at the Ceremony. Bridegroom Is a Roman Catholic and Bride Is a Protestant—Four Little Girls Act as Bridesmaids.

New York, Jan. 14.—Another American girl of wealth entered the peerage of Great Britain this afternoon when Miss Beatrice Mills of this city became the Countess of Granard by marriage to the Earl of Granard, master of the horse to King Edward. The ceremony was performed at the city house of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills, parents of the bride, at Sixty-ninth street and Fifth avenue. Only relatives and intimate friends had been asked to the ceremony, which was private. The wedding was marked by none of the ostentation that has made great society functions of former international marriages.

Miss Mills is a Protestant, and the Earl of Granard is the head of one of the great old Roman Catholic families of Great Britain. Bishop Thomas Francis Cusack, auxiliary bishop of the archdiocese of New York, officiated at the ceremony, a dispensation having been obtained.

Following an old English custom, the bridesmaids were all little children. They were Miss Elinor Mackay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay; Miss Edith Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Taylor; Miss Alice Astor, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. John Jacob Astor, and Miss Grace Vanderbilt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt. The Hon. Donald Forbes, a younger brother of the Earl of Granard, was the best man.

Miss Beatrice Mills is one of the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills. Her sister Gladys was married a year ago to Henry Carnegie Phipps. Mrs. Ogden Mills herself was a twin, her sister being Mrs. Cavendish Bentinck of England.

D. O. Mills, the grandfather of the bride, is the well known banker and philanthropist and one of the wealthiest men in the United States.

Miss Beatrice Mills is tall, graceful and of a blond type and English in dress and manner. She has had much social success abroad and in this country.

KILLS WOMAN AND HIMSELF

Painter Shoots Wife Who Had Returned to Her Husband.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Because she had returned to her husband, from whom she had separated, Mrs. Lizzie Harbin, aged forty-one, and mother of seven children, was shot and killed at her home in this city by Frederick Kraemer, a painter, twenty-two years old, employed in the navyyard who then turned the weapon upon himself and inflicted wounds which proved fatal.

The police say that the circumstances of the tragedy indicate that probably there was an agreement between the man and woman to die together.

Recently Mrs. Harbin became estranged from her husband, Daniel Harbin, as the result of Kraemer's attentions, it is said, but for the sake of the children, they agreed to live together again. A few hours after the reconciliation Kraemer went to the Harbin home. There was no witness to their meeting and what transpired there prior to the shooting is unknown. The couple were discovered in each other's arms after the tragedy. Several of the woman's children were in the house at the time of the shooting.

LONG RIDE TAKEN BY ROOSEVELT

President Travels Ninety-eight Miles in Seventeen Hours.

LITTLE SIGNS OF WEARINESS

Chief Executive Makes Journey to Prove That Army Officers Should Be Capable of Riding Ninety Miles in Three Days—Last Thirty Miles of Journey Traversed Through Sleet and Rain Storm.

Washington, Jan. 14.—President Roosevelt rode ninety-eight miles on horseback and when he dismounted at the White House door, more than seventeen hours after having departed therefrom, he did not show any marked signs of weariness. The object of his long day in the saddle, he explained after his return, was to "prove to the critics who have found fault with the recent order ordering all army and navy officers to take a physical test, that if a president, who is not in training, can ride ninety miles plus in one day without being laid in bed thereby, it should not be too much to ask the men who are supposed to be in the best physical training all the time to ride ninety miles in three days."

Mounting his faithful rider and jumper "Roswell" in front of the White House door at 3:30 o'clock in the morning, he dismounted at the same place at 8:40 o'clock at night. The journey was to Warrenton, Va., and back. "And Virginia roads in the winter time," said the president, "are not usually in the best condition." With the president were Dr. Rixey, surgeon general of the navy; Dr. Carey Grayson and Captain Archibald Butt, one of the president's aides.

On the return trip the last thirty miles of the journey were made in sleet and rain, while the last fifteen miles were in almost pitch darkness.

Refused to Ride in Carriage.

Arriving at the Aqueduct bridge across the Potomac, the president refused to take the carriage which was waiting there for him. When he dismounted his coat and hat were frozen stiff with sleet and ice. There were four relays of horses the first stage of the journey out and the last in being made by the president on "Roswell," the second out and the third in being on "Georgia," while the other two were on army horses which the president had never before mounted.

As the four horseback riders, followed by two policemen on wheels and the empty carriage, arrived at the executive mansion, the president, in front with his broad-brimmed black slouch hat drawn down over his face, presented a striking picture.

Both the outward and the return trip lay through Fairfax Courthouse to Warrenton. Arriving at the latter place, where the president's coming had been heralded an hour or so before his arrival, he was greeted by a gathering of citizens and school children, to whom he spoke a few words of greeting. They took luncheon at a hotel and then began the return journey after a short rest.

In less than an hour after returning to the White House the president had changed his ice-coated clothing for evening dress and appeared in the dining room ready for as hearty a meal as he has eaten for a long time.

If any of the critics of his "army riding order" had dropped in about that time they would have been sadly disappointed, for the president did not show in the least that he had been sitting for nearly seventeen hours in a hard saddle.

SHOOTS DOWN TWO PERSONS

Unknown Man Wounds Woman and Kills a Policeman.

Omaha, Jan. 14.—An unknown man entered the house of Anna Wilson at Ninth and Douglas streets at 1 o'clock this morning and held up the place. A girl whose name has not been learned resisted and was shot. The robber then started for the door, where he was met by Patrolman L. A. Smith, into whose body he fired a bullet, the officer dying on the spot. The woman is not fatally wounded.

A big squad of emergency officers followed the robber to the Missouri river, where they lost track of him for a time. An hour later, however, they came upon a man near the Douglas street Missouri river bridge and on his failure to surrender several shots were fired at him, one or more of which took effect. He was then captured and rushed to the emergency hospital. He has not yet been identified as the robber.

Fire Still Rages in Mine.

Herrin, Ill., Jan. 14.—Although officers of the Zeigler Coal company said Monday that the bodies of the twenty-six men killed in the Letter mine by an explosion Sunday had been recovered, it is said at the mine that seven bodies still remain in the workings. It is probable that they will never be recovered, for a fire is raging in the mine.

Lively Debate in House.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Practically the whole session of the house of representatives was devoted to a discussion of an amendment to the District of Columbia appropriation bill appropriating $15,000 for children's playgrounds. The subject occasioned a lively debate. The supporters of the proposition prevailed and the amendment accordingly was adopted. The bill was still pending when the house adjourned.

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with overwork. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver troubles" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, dependent, frequent headaches, pain or distress "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, "dizziness," "rings" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more permanently than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to it until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle, vial, paper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret MEDICINE.
